Coronary Artery Disease: Case-based Learning

Four Seasons, Las Vegas, NV

November 1-3, 2019

Dear Healthcare Education Supporter,

On behalf of the Mayo Clinic Department of Cardiovascular Medicine, I am pleased to announce our upcoming course: Coronary Artery Disease: Case-based Learning to be held in Las Vegas, NV at the Four Seasons Hotel, November 1-3, 2019.

This educational program will provide up-to-date practical knowledge to optimally manage patients with coronary artery disease. Case-based presentations will be complimented by state-of-the-art lectures and topical debates covering the spectrum of coronary artery disease, including the latest advances in prevention, detection, and revascularization. Throughout the program multiple challenging cases and dilemmas will be presented. Emphasis will be placed upon take-home messages offered by expert faculty.

The exhibit fee of $2500 includes a 6ft. exhibit table for the duration of the course. Exhibit space will be accommodated on a first-come, first-serve basis; please reserve your space early. In order to be listed as an exhibitor, your check and agreement, payable to Mayo Clinic, Federal ID# 41-6011702, needs to be received by October 15, 2019 and should be sent to the attention of: Jessica Hemenway, Cardiovascular Medicine, Gonda 6-472, 200 First St. SW, Rochester, MN 55905. Payment is for exhibit opportunity only.

If you have any questions about our program or need additional information, please do not hesitate to contact myself at (507) 266-2655 or e-mail: hemenway.jessica@mayo.edu. This program will be unbiased and objective addressing relevant therapeutic options and will not focus on the promotion of any one single product.

Sincerely,

Jessica Hemenway
