

International Symposium on Amyloidosis

Social Activities

SUNDAY, MAY 26

- 6:30 – 8:30 p.m.
- Landow Atrium, Gonda Building on the campus of Mayo Clinic

The Welcome Reception will be on the campus of Mayo Clinic in the Gonda Building – Landow Atrium. This will be a wonderful time to connect with colleagues and start your ISA2024 experience.

In the atrium, you will appreciate the sculpture “Man of Freedom” created by Croatian sculptor Ivan Mestrovic. This is a part of the Man and Freedom commission displayed on the Mayo Building.

Tours will be available of the Mayo Clinic this evening and a film on the history from the beginnings of medicine in the cornfields to Mayo Clinic today.

MONDAY, MAY 27 – MEMORIAL DAY

- 5:30 – 9:00 p.m. reception, band until 10:00 p.m.
- Mayo and Gonda Buildings on the campus of Mayo Clinic

This evening will integrate learning in a relaxed atmosphere. Evening activities will include interesting cases, meet the experts, mass spectrometry and special protein laboratory virtual tours, Mayo clinic, tours, and visit the historical suite in the Mathew Lobby.

Music – Annenberg Plaza

Relax and connect with colleagues enjoying the Minnesota evening while listening to the music of Soul Train – LaSonya Natividad. LaSonya Natividad is a Rochester Minnesota based vocal artist hailing from the great state of Louisiana. Her unique sound is a blend of southern gospel with jazz influences. We are proud to feature such a talented Mayo Clinic advanced practice provider and her band for your enjoyment.

TUESDAY, MAY 28

- 5:00 – 7:00 p.m.
- River Plaza, Mayo Civic Center

Relax on the plaza by the Zumbo River, a tributary of the Mississippi river, that winds throughout the city of Rochester. The Rochester Art Center will be open to visit the exhibit Celebrities by Pat York. Pat York is a renowned photographer and has been touched by amyloidosis.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 29

- 6:00 – 10:00 p.m.
- The Mayowood Stone Barn

This casual mid-western style picnic is an evening to relax and celebrate before you return to your busy lives and practices. A great opportunity for all attendees and faculty to build on connections made throughout the week,

The grounds at the Mayowood Stone Barn were a part of the original property of Dr. Charles Mayo and Mayowood Farms. Enjoy lawn games, barbecue, and special entertainment throughout the evening.

Transportation will depart from the Mayo Civic Center at the close of the program. Transportation will be available from 8:30 – 11:00 p.m. to return to hotels.